

HORIZON HAPPENINGS

APRIL 2025

Actors Theatre

This month our residents took to the stage and performed a play they had been working on for the past 8 weeks in a special workshop with Actors Theatre of Louisville! Our residents teamed up with the amazing Carly and Jessica from Actors Theatre to write and perform their very own original play! From laughter to standing ovations, the energy in the room was full of excitement. We're so proud of our residents for their creativity, courage, and hard work—and so thankful to Actors Theatre for helping us make the arts more accessible, inclusive, and joyful.

Preview Day

We hosted another fantastic Preview Day! We were thrilled to welcome several guests, including JCPS and Oldham County Schools faculty, potential students, and their families. The day was full of joyful reunions—CFL students reconnecting with former teachers, parents catching up with familiar faces, and new friendships starting to form. It was such a fun day with so many unexpected and heartwarming connections.

GENEROUS SUPPORTERS

We want to extend an extra special thank you to Louisville Paving and Construction for their expert work completing the parking lot behind our Day Spring Learning Center! Their team did an outstanding job, creating an accessible and welcoming space for our residents, families, and guests. With the parking lot now complete, the Day Spring Learning Center is officially open for bookings! With space for up to 100 people, a kitchenette, and an AV system, it's the perfect venue for corporate gatherings. To reserve the space, email us at info@dayspringky.org.

HIGHLIGHTED RESIDENT OF THE MONTH

Tim

Meet Tim! At first glance, Tim might come across as the tough guy at our men's house—but spend a little time with him and you'll quickly discover he's really a big softie at heart! Especially when it comes to animals. Tim has a deep love for all creatures, particularly chickens, which remind him of his childhood growing up on a farm. His connection to animals is just one of the many ways Tim shows his compassionate and grounded nature.

Out back behind the men's house, you'll often find Tim in his element—hard at work in his beloved workshop. Whether he's stripping wires, scrapping metal, or dismantling old appliances, Tim puts incredible care and focus into his projects. It's not just a hobby—it's a purpose. He spends days, sometimes even weeks, dedicated to preparing materials to take to the scrap yard, turning discarded pieces into something valuable.

Over time, Tim has taken great pride in improving his workshop space. What was once a cluttered area is now a tidy, efficient workspace—a reflection of how important this work is to him. His drive, determination, and attention to detail are inspiring.

While many people struggle to find meaningful or productive outlets in retirement, Tim has truly found his. And when he's ready for a break from the workshop, you'll likely find him unwinding with his favorite cartoons or scratching off a few lottery tickets. We're proud of Tim for finding something that brings him pride and joy—and proud to provide him with a home where he can thrive.
